<input type="checkbox"/>	No. of Volunteers	147
<input type="checkbox"/>	Total Sacks Collected	319
<input type="checkbox"/>	Total Weight in kgs	8150

About Activity

<input type="checkbox"/>	The Mangroves Cleanup initiative is to remove litter and debris from mangrove ecosystems, aiming to protect and preserve these vital coastal habitats.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Mangroves Cleanup Drives play a vital role in protecting and restoring these important coastal ecosystems. Targeting plastic waste helps reduce the pervasive issue of plastic pollution in oceans, preventing harm to marine life and ecosystems.

Highlights

<input type="checkbox"/>	During the Annual year of 2023-2024. Total 11 Mangroves Clean – up Drives were held in association with “Beach Please India” , India's largest youth-led community working for Environmental Conservation.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Gloves, Gum boots and waste collection sacks were given to volunteers as safety gear. Their primary goal was gathering non-biodegradable objects that were endangering the nearby ecosystem, such as glass bottles, wrappers, and plastic debris. The local people are now more aware of the environment preserving activities.
<input type="checkbox"/>	To ensure the long-term preservation of our ecosystem for future generations, it is essential to keep planning and supporting events of this nature. These kinds of programs are essential for preserving our natural resources and encouraging environmentally conscious behaviour. Further recycling process of these wastes are carried out by the organizations who organizes such drives.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Volunteers were successfully able to collect approx. 434 sacks and 8150 waste during the period 2023-2024

About Activity

<input type="checkbox"/>	Nirmalya Collection Drives are meant to ensure the responsible and eco-friendly disposal of offerings made during religious festivals, specifically the Ganpati Festival and Navratri Festival, by segregating and processing biodegradable materials and recycling non-biodegradable items.

Highlights

<input type="checkbox"/>	The Nirmalya Collection for the Ganpati Festival took place from 20th September 2023 to 28th September 2023 at Sion Talav. This annual event aims to collect and manage the offerings (Nirmalya) made to Lord Ganesha during the festival.
<input type="checkbox"/>	The Nirmalya, which often consists of flowers, leaves, and other biodegradable materials, needs proper handling to ensure environmental sustainability. The primary objective of the Nirmalya Collection was to gather and manage the offerings made by devotees during the Ganpati Festival in an eco-friendly and responsible manner.
<input type="checkbox"/>	This process is crucial to prevent pollution of water bodies and promote environmental awareness. The materials gathered were carefully separated into biodegradable and non-biodegradable categories. Volunteers and organizers spoke to devotees during the collection process and gave them awareness about the importance of environmentally friendly disposal practices.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Collection points were strategically placed in various locations throughout the festival area. Trained volunteers and workers collected the Nirmalya from the collection points at regular intervals. Total Visarjit Ganesh idols during four days were 4150 approx. (8.3 Tons/8300 KGs)

About Activity

<input type="checkbox"/>	Nirmalya Collection Drives are meant to ensure the responsible and eco-friendly disposal of offerings made during religious festivals, specifically the Ganpati Festival and Navratri Festival, by segregating and processing biodegradable materials and recycling non-biodegradable items.

Highlights

<input type="checkbox"/>	The Nirmalya Collection for the Ganpati Festival took place from 20th September 2023 to 28th September 2023 at Sion Talav. This annual event aims to collect and manage the offerings (Nirmalya) made to Lord Ganesha during the festival.
<input type="checkbox"/>	The Nirmalya, which often consists of flowers, leaves, and other biodegradable materials, needs proper handling to ensure environmental sustainability. The primary objective of the Nirmalya Collection was to gather and manage the offerings made by devotees during the Ganpati Festival in an eco-friendly and responsible manner.
<input type="checkbox"/>	This process is crucial to prevent pollution of water bodies and promote environmental awareness. The materials gathered were carefully separated into biodegradable and non-biodegradable categories. Volunteers and organizers spoke to devotees during the collection process and gave them awareness about the importance of environmentally friendly disposal practices.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Collection points were strategically placed in various locations throughout the festival area. Trained volunteers and workers collected the Nirmalya from the collection points at regular intervals. Total Visarjit Ganesh idols during four days were 4150 approx. (8.3 Tons/8300 KGs)
